The smile built into every Vaillant boiler comes from the confidence of over 125 years continuous product innovation, combined with unrivalled aftersales support. And the knowledge that our products have shaped the development of today's heating industry.

Throughout our range of combination, system and condensing boilers there's a host of built-in features designed to make life easier.

What's more, with high SEDBUK ratings, Vaillant boilers are designed to maximise fuel efficiency without compromising on performance.

So behind every Vaillant smile you'll find exceptional reliability, high performance and outstanding efficiency.

It's enough to make anyone happy.
